

THE HUMBER BRIDGE
COUNTRY HOTEL

Welcome, here's a little bit of History about us...

The Humber Bridge Country Hotel has been under the ownership of the same family for over 21 years. However they first lived here in 1971 in what is now known as 'The Lodge' building before moving away and returning in 1995 to begin a huge financial investment project and structural redevelopment working in partnership with English Nature, The Lincolnshire Wildlife and local council planners.

Barton upon Humber has seen a continual expansion with new businesses and houses over the past 50 years, mainly due to long awaited opening of The Humber Bridge in 1981. But it is famous for many other features and celebrities too:

- Elswick Hopper cycle works
- Ted Lewis Author of 'Get Carter'
- Chad Varah of The Samaritan Charity
- Dave Harrison (Cartoon illustrator for the Beano)
- Sir Isaac Pitman (Shorthand)

The original hotel and grounds began life as a Clay & Brick works and overtime the lakes have formed naturally, becoming part of a National Nature Reserve.

As you can see there was a caravan park many years ago, these were removed in 1999, however steps are being created once planning consent has been approved to build a number of Timber Lodges that will enhance the site, giving an opportunity for more people to take advantage of the natural environment and help themselves to the peace and tranquillity that surrounds this beautiful and stunning hotel.

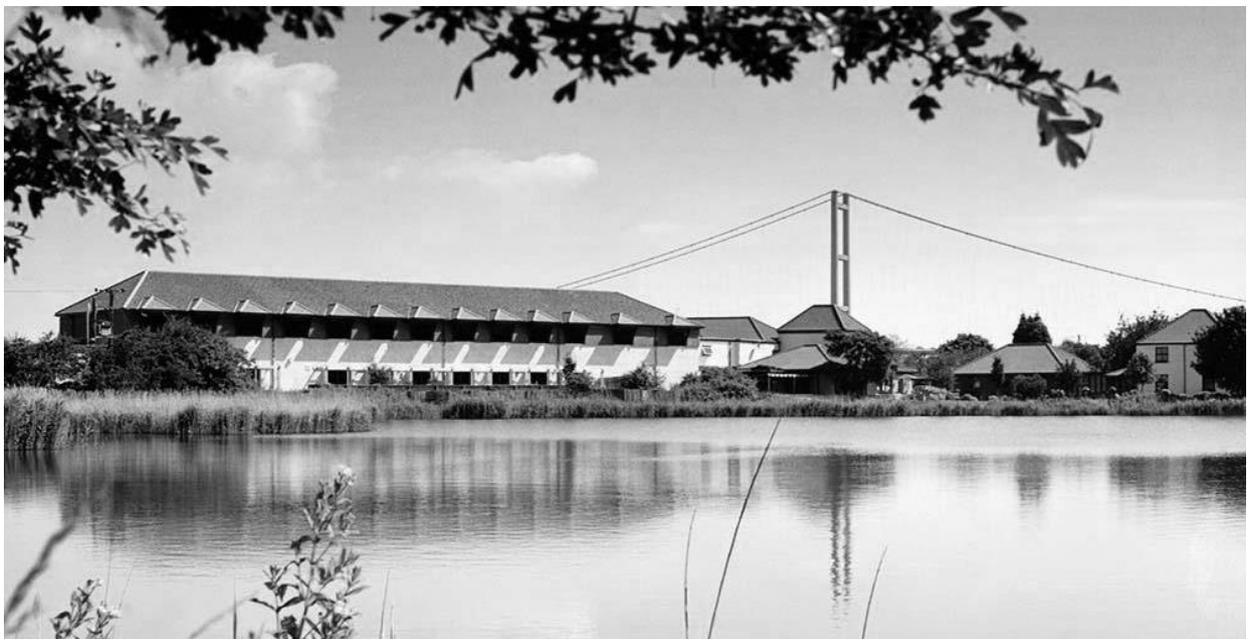

Demolition and renovation of original site begins, 1996
